Your tax and business planning program includes a new client kick-off call, a two-hour Revenue Enhancement call (if applicable), a half-day personal consultation, a comprehensive plan of action report, and ongoing quarterly meetings thereafter (12-month minimum commitment).

INITIAL ONE-HOUR CONFERENCE CALL

After receipt of your information, we'll schedule your kick-off call (doctor and spouse) to set goals, clarify data, and address any preliminary financial questions or urgent concerns.

TWO-HOUR REVENUE ENHANCEMENT CALL

(This step does not apply to orthodontists.)

Dr. Charles Blair will speak with you/your staff to review your fees, procedure mix, treatment protocols, insurance coding, and managed care strategies, to help you capitalize your revenue and reach your practice profitability goals.

IN-OFFICE (CHARLOTTE, NC) CONSULTATION

During your half-day meeting, you'll receive recommendations regarding tax-saving strategies, insurance coverages, retirement planning, educational funding, asset protection, practice profitability, debt reduction/savings, and estate planning.

By the end of your in-office meeting, a plan of action will be agreed upon by both doctor and spouse to ensure your comprehensive financial plan is approved by all parties.

COMPREHENSIVE TAX AND BUSINESS PLANNING REPORT

Following your meeting, we'll prepare and send you a detailed report outlining an implementation checklist of the recommended strategies that were discussed and agreed upon, along with financial projections, providing you with a solid plan of action.

FOLLOW UP AND SUPPORT

Our team will support you to help you successfully navigate your personal and practice finances.
